DEDICATED TO OUR BOYS WHO ARE NOW ON

The Road to Victory

Words and Music

— by —

FRANCIS C. CHANTERAU

AUTHOR OF
"YOUR SOLDIER'S LAST GOODBYE."
"THE THIRD MAINE."

Price 50 cents.

PUBLISHED BY
FRANCIS C. CHANTERAU
PORTLAND, MAINE.

THE ROAD TO VICTORY

Words and Music by
FRANCIS C. CHANTEREAU

Marcia
f marcato
To free the world from the de - mons of Hell The Al - lied
A - mer - i - cans we are loy - al and true, And we will Na - tions have calld on us right well, Pres-i - dent Wil - son re - plied For the cause we show to the Huns what we can do. Al-though it looks to be hard Al - so ve - ry stand Five mil - lions or more will go to No Man's Land Un - til we've passd thro' sad We al - ways pre-pared to fol - low our dear flag To con - quer and we France or It - a - ly That won der ful road, the road to Vic - to - ry.
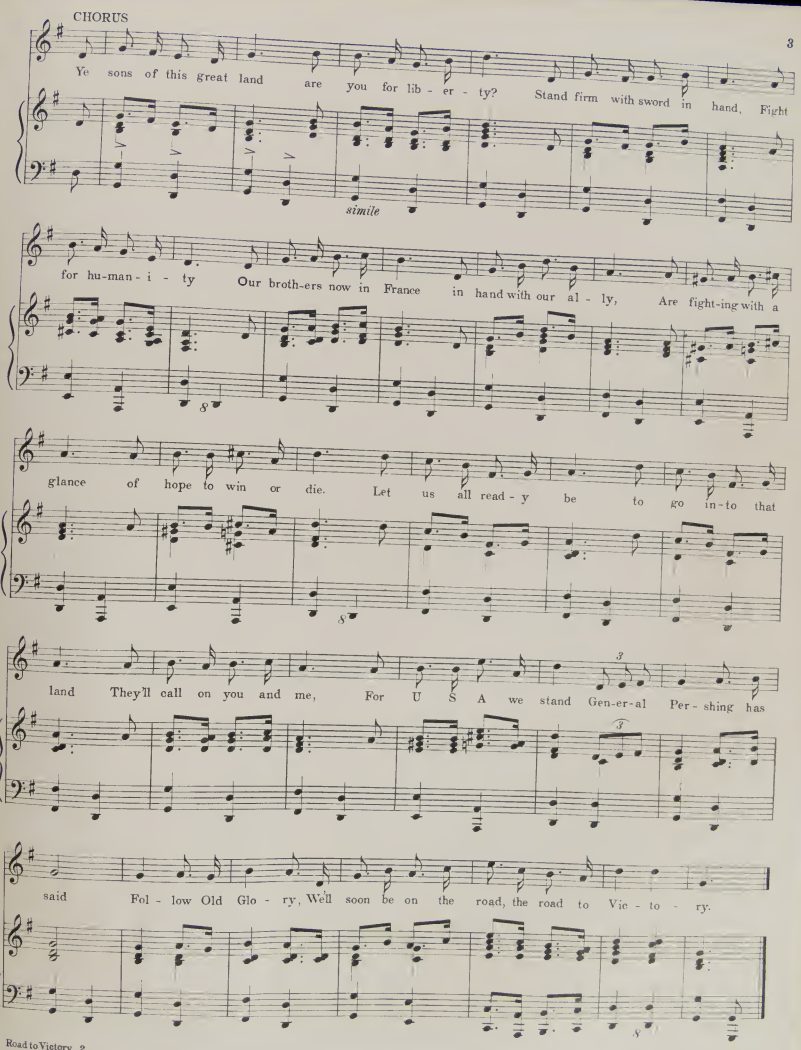
must on land and sea That glo - ri - ous road, the road to Vic - to - ry.
rall.

Copyright 1918 by Francis C. Chantereau



CHORUS
Ye sons of this great land are you for lib - er - ty? Stand firm with sword in hand, Fight simile for hu-man - i - ty Our broth-ers now in France in hand with our al - ly, Are fight-ing with a glance of hope to win or die. Let us all read - y be to go in-to that land They'll call on you and me, For U S A we stand Gen-er-al Per - shing has said Fol - low Old Glo - ry, We'll soon be on the road, the road to Vic - to - ry.